To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrillfield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

One hundred and seventy loaded freight cars left St. Albans and Essex Junction to-day, going south, over the Vermont Central Railroad.

THE stove store of D. M. Walker & Co. on Main Street was burglariously entered on Thursday, the money drawer was broken open and the contents to the amount of only fifty cents was carried away by the thieves. This is supposed to have been the work of boys who are now in training for the Reform School at Waterbury.

HOP AT THE CHAMPLAIN HOUSE.—We learn that a very pleasant hop came off at the Champlain House, Highgate, Mr. J. P. Clark proprietor, on Tuesday evening. Hubbard's Band furnished the music, and among those who tripped the light fantastic toe were several fine looking ladies from Providence, Brooklyn, and other of our principle cities. The Champlain House is now in good running order, and we are glad to be assured that Mr. Clark, who is keeping an excellent house is doing a good business this season.

VOTE FOR PRESIDENT.—A vote of the legal voters from five States was taken by visitors at Highgate Springs, on the 4th inst., for President, with the following result: Grant and Colfax, 22; Seymour and Blair, 3. On the 5th inst., the ladies from six States took a vote with the following result: Grant and Colfax 32; Seymour and Blair 2.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—We learn from the Chronicle that Catherine Webster was brought before the District Court at Windsor on Wednesday morning last, and pleaded guilty to an indictment for smuggling. She was fined $200 and released on her own recognisance. This lady will be remembered as the last one of three who were arrested here about six weeks ago for smuggling silks from Canada, and since which time she has remained with Sheriff Soule in durance vile.

REV. W. W. PATTON, D. D., of New Haven, Ct., at the request of several of our most prominent citizens, will give a free lecture in the Congregational Church, on Monday evening next at half past seven o'clock. This lecture has been delivered to large audiences in several of the cities and has been received with marked approbation. The subject is, "The stone power of the prophet Daniel, a form of civil government, or a Republic the divine model." Daniel 111—31—45.

That Resolution.

We have been requested by a subscriber and correspondent, and herewith comply with the request, to publish the resolution alluded to in an editorial article a few days since, with the vote on the resolution in the State Senate. The whole may be found on page 257 of the Senate Journal for 1867. The resolution was introduced by Mr. Hendee, of Lamoille County. The proceedings are recorded as follows in the journal referred to:

"Mr. Hendee introduced the following resolution:

"Resolved—by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Vermont,—That in the unhappy conflict of opinion between Congress and the Executive Department of the National Government, in relation to the policy of the States lately in rebellion, we heartily endorse the action of Congress, and believe that its measures need only to be faithfully carried out by the executive to secure an early and satisfactory restoration of the country to quietness and prosperity on the broad basis of equality and constitutional liberty; Which was read and adopted on the part of the Senate."

The yeas and nays having been demanded by Mr. Baker, they were taken, and are as follows:

Those Senators who voted in the affirmative are Messrs

Allen,	Dewey,	Leonard,
Anderson,	Dyer,	Martin,
Baker,	Goodhue,	Orcutt,
Bassett,	Hard,	Proulx,
Brown,	Hendee,	Root,
Ballard,	Henry,	Saborn,
Bart,	Hill,	Simpson,
Candfield,	Kellogg,	Smith,
Clapp,	Lane,	Walker,—28.
Dale,

"The Senator who voted in the negative is Mr. Atwood."

Commencement.

The commencement exercises at the University of Vermont, on Thursday, passed off finely, with credit to all concerned. The graduating class consisted of only five members,—a small class, which make up in quality what they lack in numbers,—a smaller class than will be known again, we think. We hear that the next class of Freshmen will number about twenty-five. We did not attend the exercises at Commencement, but hear the orations of the graduates highly spoken of. The graduates, and address of each, were as follows:

The growth of the idea of Human Brotherhood.—Henry Clay Barnes, West Addison.

Mental Culture as a resource in Adversity.—Joseph Dudley Denison, Randolph.

Written and Unwritten Constitutions. Leslie Munson Platt, Burlington.

Editorial tendencies of Modern Research.—Mason B. Carpenter, Barre.

Is the voice of the People the voice of God?—Albert Dana Tenney, Evansville, Ind.

The candidates for the Master's Degree, and the titles of their addresses, were:

The influence of Civilization on Morality.—George Bigelow Shaw, Burlington.

Spiritual Forces in History.—John Hopkins Worcester, Jr., Burlington.

The exercises at the Church ended with services in commemoration of the late Professor Torrey.

Not being in the eating mood we did not indulge in the pleasures of the bountiful tables spread for the Commencement Dinner at the American Hotel. The dinner was, with its succeeding speeches, highly enjoyed, and its good name remains in the mouths of many. Concerning the excursion on the lake, on the still-running and well-managed steamer "Canada," we can speak from experience, and say that in all respects it was enjoyable. The weather was fine; the boat was right; the lake was laconic of white-caps; the music was Graffula's; the passengers were Ladies and Gentlemen; and if there was any reason why reasonable and pleasant enjoyment should not be the blessing of all, the reason failed to produce its effect, and the blessing was accepted. After a trip which lasted until 2 o'clock a. m., on which the pleasant village of Plattsburgh was visited, and some of its citizens received on board, with officers of the 42nd Infantry included, the boat returned its freight of pleasure-seekers at the Burlington wharf, and the excursion and ending of Commencement came to a period. For our enjoyment we are indebted to the editors of the Times, and others, who extended, as they did to us last year, every courtesy. Every visit which we have made to the "Queen City" but strengthens the favorable opinions expressed by us last year.

We are glad to know that the University is generally believed to be entering on a career of prosperity and increased usefulness. Two years have seen successful efforts made in its behalf which promise this, and the promise begins to be realized. Liberal donations have been made, and we presume will still be made to give new life to the institution, and the choice of instructors has been felicitous. The University does not entertain an Angel unaware. Long and well may it live!

NORMAN DAVIS, of Hinesburgh, indicted for mail robbery, pleaded guilty on Thursday morning, and is in confinement awaiting sentence.

—When Boston takes snuff the people all over the State sneeze "Massachusetts."

Organization of the Lamoille Valley R. R. Co.

At a meeting of the friends and stockholders of the Lamoille Valley, R. R. Co., holden at Hyde Park on the 7th inst., the following Directors were elected: L. M. Knight, Waldo Brigham, Geo. W. Hendee and Olaf Abell, Lamoille Co.; A. B. Jewett, O. S. Rixford, D. D. Wend, and R. S. Read, Franklin Co.; Franklin Fairbanks, J. D. Bell and J. H. George, Caledonia Co.

At a meeting of the Directors, Hon. Waldo Brigham was elected President; D. D. Wend, Treasurer; J. H. George, Clerk; Geo. W. Hendee, A. B. Jewett, Franklin Fairbanks and L. M. Knight, Executive Committee.

The meeting was well attended by the citizens of Franklin County, among whom are noticed Col. Benton, Hon. Jasper Rand, St. Albans; Dr. G. M. Hall, Bryant Hall and Moses Catlin; Swanton; I. S. Jennison and J. B. Cross, Highgate; Judge Saxe, Alfred Keith and F. M. Marsh, Sheldon; J. M. Pomeroy and Jos. Northrup, N. W. Isham, Fairfield; I. F. Dean, M. R. Tyler and G. Start, Bakersfield.

The meeting was harmonious and much enthusiasm prevailed. One million and seventy-five thousand dollars ($1,075,000.00) has been subscribed to the Capital Stock of this enterprise in Vermont, and its friends are confident that the Road will be built at an early day.

Russia seems to be gradually growing towards supremacy in Europe, and if she cannot get out of her comparative isolation directly by way of Constantinople, she intends to get out by indirect means. The London Army and Navy Gazette says:

Repulsed for a time in the west, the Russians are sedulously bent on carrying out the will of Peter in the east. They have a rock on which to build their political temple. Khiva has fallen. In Kokand there reigns a Russian vassal. Tashkend was won in 1865, and now the city of Genghis Khan—of Timur the Tartar—Samarcand, is theirs after a campaign of two days. The Russian army marching sixty miles and fighting two battles in those two days showed that it was capable of greater efforts than the overthrow of the troops of Bokhara. And, once in Samarcand, how long will Bokhara itself be safe? And after that what?

CANADIAN ITEMS.—Six prisoners escaped from the jail at Swetsburgh on the night of the 30th ult., one of whom was subsequently captured.

The following American Insurance Companies have made deposits in Canada: Home, New Haven; Aetna, Hartford; Phoenix Life, Mutual Life, Travelers' Life and Accident, and the Aetna Life, all of Hartford.

The first general meeting of the shareholders of the S. E. Junction Railway was held at Knowlton on the 29th ult. and elected the following board of Directors: Hon. C. Dunkin J. O'Halloran, H. S. Foster, N. Pettles, Levi A. Perkins, John McManis, Geo. Baker, Geo. A. Galer, S. W. Foster and E. O. Brigham.

At the G. T. R. Station at Point Lewis, on the 4th Rev. John Stewart, of Sanguerville, formerly of Standstead, while standing or passing between a stationary car and a train to which a locomotive was attached, when the latter was suddenly forced back, the coupling catching, crushing Mr. Stewart between, inflicting a severe cut in the lower part of the abdomen and splintering the pelvis. At first Mr. Stewart's injuries were thought to be fatal, but hopes are now entertained of his recovery.

Miss Mathieson, eldest daughter of Rev. Dr. Mathieson of Montreal, was drowned at Cacouna on the 29th ult., while bathing, having slipped of a rock into deep sea water.
